IMPORTANT Information for Students enrolling in courses on a Letter of Permission (LOP)

Please retain this page for your information.

Transferring Credit toward your McMaster degree

- Transfer credit is only granted for courses completed with a minimum grade of C- (60%). Grades for courses completed on Letter of Permission do not appear on the McMaster transcript and are not included in McMaster averages.
- Permission is granted only for the courses approved.

Transcripts

- It is your responsibility to ensure official transcripts are sent to your Faculty/Program Office at McMaster.

Important Dates:

- Students expecting to graduate at:
 - Spring Convocation:
 - i. Bachelor of Health Science students - transcripts must be received by May 1.
 - ii. All other students - transcripts must be received by May 15.
 - Fall convocation:
 - i. transcripts must be received by October 15.

Failure to send an official transcript to appropriately update work will result in a transcript notation/grade of NC (No Credit).

Cancelling a Letter of Permission

- Should you choose not to complete coursework on Letter of Permission or if you cancel/withdraw from a course(s), you must supply your Faculty/Program Office with an official letter from the host institution confirming you did not register for the permitted course(s) and session, or a transcript showing the cancelled course(s).

Please contact your Faculty/Program Office if you have any questions.
